As well as all those bodies listed above, every household in the parish was invited to comment on the Plan. Copies of the Plan were available for residents to take away on the June 2018 consultation day. Further hard copies were posted to any resident who requested a copy or was unable to view the Plan on line. Response sheets were provided to all consultees and the responses reviewed. As a result of the responses received, the Frequently Asked Questions sheet was updated and made available via the Parish Council web site.
